Museum as a system – how exhibitions work

Die kaiserlichen Sammlungen wurden im Laufe ihrer Geschichte an unterschiedlichen Orten und nach verschiedenen Prinzipien ausgestellt. Prachtvolle illustrierte Bildinventare zeugen von historischen wandfüllenden Hängungen der Gemälde in der Stallburg. Für das Belvedere sind Hängepläne, für das Kunsthistorische Museum historische Aufnahmen früher Präsentationen überliefert. Diese bilden Dokumente des sich wandelnden Zeitgeschmacks und geben einen Eindruck der bis zu Beginn des 20. Jahrhunderts favorisierten üppigen Hängeweise.

Die hier präsentierte sog. "barocke Hängung* knüpft an die Geschichte der Habsburger Sammlungen an. Fokussiert auf einen einzigen Saal, ermöglicht sie einerseits, Bilder zu zeigen, die sonst keinen

Platz in der Galerie fänden, und andererselts eine neue Seherfahrung: die Wirkung der Prachtfülle einer flächendeckenden Präsentation der Bilder samt ihren Bezügen innerhalb der Gemäldegruppen, Hier wurden die historisch tradierten Prinzipien der Symmetrie sowie der Anordnung nach Themen bzw. Schulen beibehalten.

Schließlich erlaubt eine solche Präsentation durch die Integration der dekorativen Bauelemente des Raumes, das Konzept des Baus der Gemäldegalerie als Gesamtkunstwerk zu "restaurieren".

Die in den Stuckreliefs der Decke und den Büsten in den Ovalnischen dargestellten flämischen und holländischen barocken Meister sind zugleich Autoren einiger der hier gezeigten Gemälde.
